

Advocacy In Action

Keynote Speaker:
Dr. Wylin Wilson

Celebrate Black Maternal Health
Week with the Center for Black
Women's Wellness April 11-17th, 2025.

FOCUS

Dr. Wylin Wilson will explore a reimagined, inclusive approach to bioethics. Her work offers a powerful corrective to mainstream bioethics by centering the lived experiences of Black women. She will highlight how hospitals, churches, and communities can better respond to the unique healthcare needs of Black women and advocate for more just, culturally responsive care.

FACILITATOR

Kayla S. Adams, MPH
Maternal-Child Health Program
Associate

APRIL
14 | 6:30-7:30PM
MONDAY VIRTUAL: ZOOM

477 Windsor St. SW Atlanta, GA 30312

SCAN ME!

Scan the QR code to register for the event!